Code of Conduct

Agreement to a Code of Conduct is required of all children and parents participating in the Tutorial and must be turned in at the time of registration.

General Guidelines

- All students and parents will conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively on home schooling and on our families at all times.
- Students are expected to arrive on time and to be picked up on time.
- We encourage the use of “Yes, Ma’am,” “No, Ma’am,” etc., as a sign of respect for adults in authority.
- Parents should call the Tutorial office at (731) 512-3492 or (731) 225-8172 to contact students during Tutorial.
- Faith Home School Tutorial and West Jackson Baptist Church are not responsible for loss or damage of a student’s personal property, including electronics, dental appliance and jewelry.
- Faith Home School Tutorial leadership will investigate complaints and determine consequences and/or continued participation when the rules are not kept.
- Students whose behavior is inappropriate during class or group activities will be lovingly corrected by the adult in charge. Parents will be notified of recurring discipline problems and expected to help the teacher by speaking with the child regarding his/her behavior.
- Failure to comply with the code of conduct may result in dismissal from the Tutorial.

General Guidelines for Academics

Conduct deemed unacceptable includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Cheating and plagiarism
- Excessive and consistent absenteeism and/or tardiness
